A stylized map of the St James Street area in Portsmouth. The map shows a network of streets in light grey, with green areas representing parks or open spaces. A blue area on the left represents the sea. A black shield logo is positioned above the text 'ST JAMES STREET'. Below this, 'PRIMAVIDAE' is written in a smaller font, with a diagonal line through the 'V'. An orange rectangular box with the text 'ST JAMES STREET' is placed over the street. Four black rectangular boxes with white text are connected to specific locations on the map by thin black lines: 'University of Portsmouth - Portland Building' (top left), 'University of Portsmouth - Library' (bottom left), 'University of Portsmouth' (bottom center), and 'University of Portsmouth - Eldon Building' (right).
